

About Us

Founded in 2023, Via Blankwear is built on the sourcing expertise of Via Transports, a specialist in the import and wholesale of blank apparel since 1989.

Our core strength lies in the seamless fusion of functional design, optimized for advanced decoration and a sophisticated aesthetic that stands alone. By delivering exceptional quality at an accessible price point, we have already earned the trust of over 700 partners across Japan, steadily establishing a new benchmark in the premium blank apparel market.

Our uniforms are designed to provide the freedom of movement required in professional environments, ensuring comfort through lightweight, stress-free wear. With a unique, fashionable aesthetic not found elsewhere in the blank apparel market, our products serve as the ideal canvas to elevate corporate logos and branding.

Delivering high functionality and sophisticated design at an accessible price point offers more than just a change of attire. Wearing the same high-quality garment fosters a sense of belonging and serves as a meaningful foundation for building stronger, more unified teams.

For Branded Wear

We bring brand value into tangible form through thoughtfully designed products, helping to strengthen fan loyalty. Our silhouettes, influenced by the latest trends and street culture, go beyond the concept of "blank garments," standing as highly designed apparel pieces in their own right.

Carefully calculated material textures and precise fits are crafted to maximize the impact of applied graphics, resulting in products that become long-lasting wardrobe staples rather than fleeting souvenir. This level of quality, cultivated within Japan's premium market, delivers strong commercial appeal and resonates with end users who value sophisticated style.
